

Shoreline City Council Recap for July and August 2010:

On Tuesday, August 3, Shoreline residents came together to celebrate community participating in over 29 events for National Night Out. It was an opportunity for neighbors to come together, share information and support each other. City Council members, along with City, Police and Fire staff, visited events to introduce themselves and help answer questions.

The Council is currently on recess. Its next meeting will be on Tuesday, September 7.
